DoubleClick		DoubleClick uses cookies to improve advertising. Some common applications are to target advertising based on what's relevant to a user, to improve reporting on campaign performance, and to avoid showing ads the user has already seen. Cookies themselves contain no personally identifiable information. Depending on the publisher's and user's settings, information associated with cookies used in advertising may be added to the user's Google Account. If a user opts out of ads personalization using Google's Ads Settings, they will no longer receive personalized advertising from Google.
