Previous Clients and Events

Thank you! We had a great trip and I can't thank you and your staff enough for a wonderful trip and care that you gave to myself and our group! I will definitely be in touch about the next World Cup festival!

Thank you again for everything!

Day 1 - Wednesday 29th August 2018

Meet up at your UK Airport where you will check in for your direct flight to Prague. On arrival into Prague's Ruzyně Airport you will be met by our local representative and transferred by coach to the 4 star NH Hotel Prague, where you will be accommodated for the next 5 nights on a B&B basis.

- The hotel is within walking distance of the playing venue and has excellent access to the transport system for getting into the centre of Prague.

Day 2 - Thursday 30th August 2018

After breakfast, you have a day sightseeing. You will have a guided tour of Prague to explore this most enchanting of European Cities, which will include the dramatic Prague Castle. You will then have a lunch cruise on the Vltava River to continue viewing the historical sights, from the deck of a riverboat.

Days 3, 4 & 5

Friday 31st August, Saturday 1st and Sunday 2nd September

Breakfast will be served in the hotel.

The Prague Cup

Venue: TJ Sokol Mrazovka, Prague 5 (grass field)

- Matches will be scheduled throughout the day.
- No limit on squad size
- An opportunity to play against the Czech U19 National Team amongst other teams.

The evenings are free to make your own arrangements. You may decide to spend some more time relaxing in Old Time Square, exploring the centre of Prague and the beautiful Charles Bridge, wandering around the many shops and cafés that are tucked away in between the outstanding architecture or go and see a classical concert.

Day 6 - Monday 3rd September

After an early breakfast, check out of your rooms and transfer by coach to Prague's Ruzyně Airport ready to check in for your return flight to the UK. On arrival back in England, disperse for home.
